Several sites throughout Worcester, but staff generally meet in families' homes or other convenient community locations	Families and Communities Together (FCT) offers the Wraparound Service Planning process to families whose children have a serious emotional / behavioral challenge who have MASS Health Insurance. The program works with families to build a Care Planning Team, and this Team then meets on a regular basis to develop the Family's Individualized Care Plan. This Care Plan is the "road map" to who will do what and by when. The goal is help the family identify appropriate solutions to their needs, and then to help make those solutions a reality.	Times most convenient to families. The hours of operation are Monday-Friday, 8 am to 8 pm	Youth with a serious mental health diagnosis under the age of 21 with MASS Health Insurance, who are involved with multiple agencies or providers and whose family feels that coordination of those agencies or providers would be helpful.	For further information, or to discuss a possible referral, one should contact our main number for the Worcester CSAs at: 1-877-778-5030	There are no fees. The service is paid for by the youth's MASS Health insurance.
