

High Quality Instructional Materials for English Language Learners

Educators and school systems often struggle with designing and/or choosing quality instructional materials for English learners.

Read more here to learn how WIDA PRIME V2 can help.

Fall courses start January 18, 2017 at ELLstudents.com

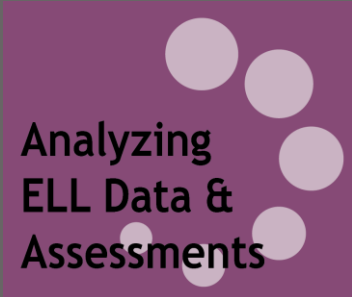

While open to all educators, participants in Massachusetts earn 15 state-approved RETELL SEI PDPs

The growth is amazing!! I learned so much! --Jennifer Wheeler, 1st Gr Teacher, Conway, MA; Course 116

Differentiating for ELLs through the WIDA Standards

EECL16 Educators can integrate WIDA's Standards Framework to boost academic language instruction and assessment. Participants learn and apply strategies for differentiating language for their specific content area.

Great for content, Special Ed and ELL teachers and coaches.

Analyzing ELL Data & Assessments

EEC117 Educators benefit from learning assessment literacy for working successfully with English learners. Participants learn and apply strategies for formatively assessing academic language growth and redesigning classroom assessments.

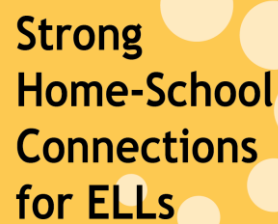

Great for content, Special Ed and ELL teachers, support staff, and coaches.

Evaluation & Leadership for ELL Equity

EEC118 Leaders and coaches need to understand the competencies of effective teachers of ELLs in order to effectively support students. In this engaging course, participants will learn and apply strategies for refining teacher leadership skills and deepening professional learning communities.

Great for principals, district leaders and coaches.

Strong Home-School Connections for ELLs

EEC119 Educators can tap into ELLs' rich and diverse assets to improve family engagement and classroom performance. Participants learn and apply strategies for uncovering ELLs' "funds of knowledge" for culturally responsive schooling.

Great for content, Special Ed and ELL teachers, support staff and leaders.

ELL Teacher Leadership & Collaboration Strategies

EEC120 Educators can improve their collaboration skills focused on improving outcomes for English learners. Participants learn and apply strategies for strengthening professional learning, including coaching and co-teaching strategies.

Great for content, Special Ed and ELL teachers, support staff, and coaches.

From the Boston-based consulting organization Confianza, ELLstudents offers blended professional learning resources for educators that makes a positive difference for multilingual learners and English language learners (ELLs).

