LIVE JOYFULLY (The Hunger for Joy) - Presented by Jeanine Fitzgerald

Anyone who has ever watched the life cycle of a balloon has also seen the full range of the human heart. When lightened, the heart soars, flying above all constraints. When saddened and heavy, it deflates, sinks, bounces along the ground, shrinking to a fraction of its original size. Like a balloon, all it needs is a good dose of helium to get it soaring again. And the best helium for the heart is joy. Our humanity hungers for joy and happiness. While life can certainly beat the joy right out of us, happiness and laughter are choices. This session looks at two simple questions: Why do we pursue happiness in the wrong places and what would happen if we discover true joy? It is joy that anchors us in hope.
