THE MOTIVATED CHILD

Motivation is essential to a child's capacity to strive for and succeed at long-term goals, as well as persist in the face of challenges and adversity. All children are naturally motivated and knowing what experiences keep them that way is important in a one-size-fits-all approach to education. This session explores brain-friendly approaches that capitalize on and maximize every child's motivation and engagement.

COME EARLY TO JOIN OUR PARENT ADVISORY COUNCIL at 4:30 before the workshop!

Please consider joining our Parent Advisory Council, your participation is needed and greatly appreciated
