By-laws of the School Committee

Annual Organizational Meetings

The School Committee shall meet for organization on the first Monday in January following the inaugural ceremony. This meeting shall be the regular meeting for the month of January.

The organization shall be as follows:

1. The Mayor shall be Chairman of the School Committee.
2. A Vice-Chairperson shall be chosen for the year ensuing from the members of the School Committee by a viva voice vote, each member present answering to his name when called by the Clerk or other proper officer, stating the name of the person for whom he votes, or that he declines to vote. The Clerk or other proper officer shall record every such vote.

The first order of business shall be the acceptance of policies and by-laws of the previous School Committee to be in force until changes are effected.
