

The 6Rs of Bullying Prevention is an award winning book written by Michele Borba who presented at the BRACE Conference in April of 2017. Her book highlights best proven practices to combat cruelty and build respect. The Administration is recommending that the School Committee file this outdated item.