

January News

Happy New Year! I hope everyone had a relaxing holiday with family and friends. I am so proud of the students' performance at the holiday show. They were amazing singers! As the second term comes to a close, there will be some changes with weekly homework. Students will be responsible for keeping a weekly reading log to go along with the nightly 20 minutes of reading. This additional assignment shouldn't take much time since we practice these concepts in class.
