

The Administration is mindful of its use of outside legal services and takes steps to manage costs including utilizing the services of the Law Department of the City of Worcester as appropriate; and, requiring that legal services be assessed through Central Administration.