

Welcome to Third Grade with Ms. Vargas

I am very excited to have the opportunity to work with all of you next year. I have heard great things about all of you and how hard you have worked during this very different school year. I am looking forward to working together to create a kind and caring classroom community where everybody's voice counts. Attached you will find information supplies you will need for next year. My email is vargasb@worcesterschools.net if you have any questions over the summer. Enjoy your much deserved vacation and don't forget to read!
