

February News

Hello Families!

As you know, the timeline project is due this week, on February 3rd. If your child didn't pass one in yet, there's still time. We are presenting them as they come in, so please send it in at any time. It's a great way for students to strengthen connections with other students as well as deepen their understanding of timelines.

Events

- February 3 - Timeline Project Due & WT Library Books Due
- February 8 - PTO Virtual Meeting 6:00pm
